Remember

Our first day in high school,
That sunny September day,
Filled, we were with such ambition,
While keeping fears at bay.

Four years seemed such a long span,
But our days soon overflowed.
Taking hold of opportunities,
Ahead, through time, we strode.

The symbolism we deciphered!
The note cards we compiled!
The data we collected!
And field trips - now we smiled.

Remember feeling satisfaction
About discoveries we made,
And cozy gatherings of friends -
These memories will not fade.

The times we gazed out windows,
Looking with longing at the sky,
The sun, the snow, even rain looked inviting
To our eyes, watching the seasons roll by.

We kept our sights on the future
And forward we forged along,
Sharing laughter, tears, and triumphs
Together, going strong.

Now looking back at all we've done,
The journey seems so short.
Yes, time has traveled quickly,
For we have reached the port.

Although the time called "now" is past,
Another "now" stands not far.
Let's remember one another;
Turn the page, for here we are.

Vocational

During our four eventful years at the Waltham Vocational High School, we learned to work together to become specialists in our particular fields. We started out young and courageous. Working, building, fixing, and crafting with our own hands was a satisfying achievement. Not only did each year become more challenging, but more enjoyable as well. We grew in confidence and developed pride in what we could create, making new friends along our route. We learned valuable skills, and we leave the Vocational as confident adults ready to enter the competitive work force as skilled tradesmen and women.

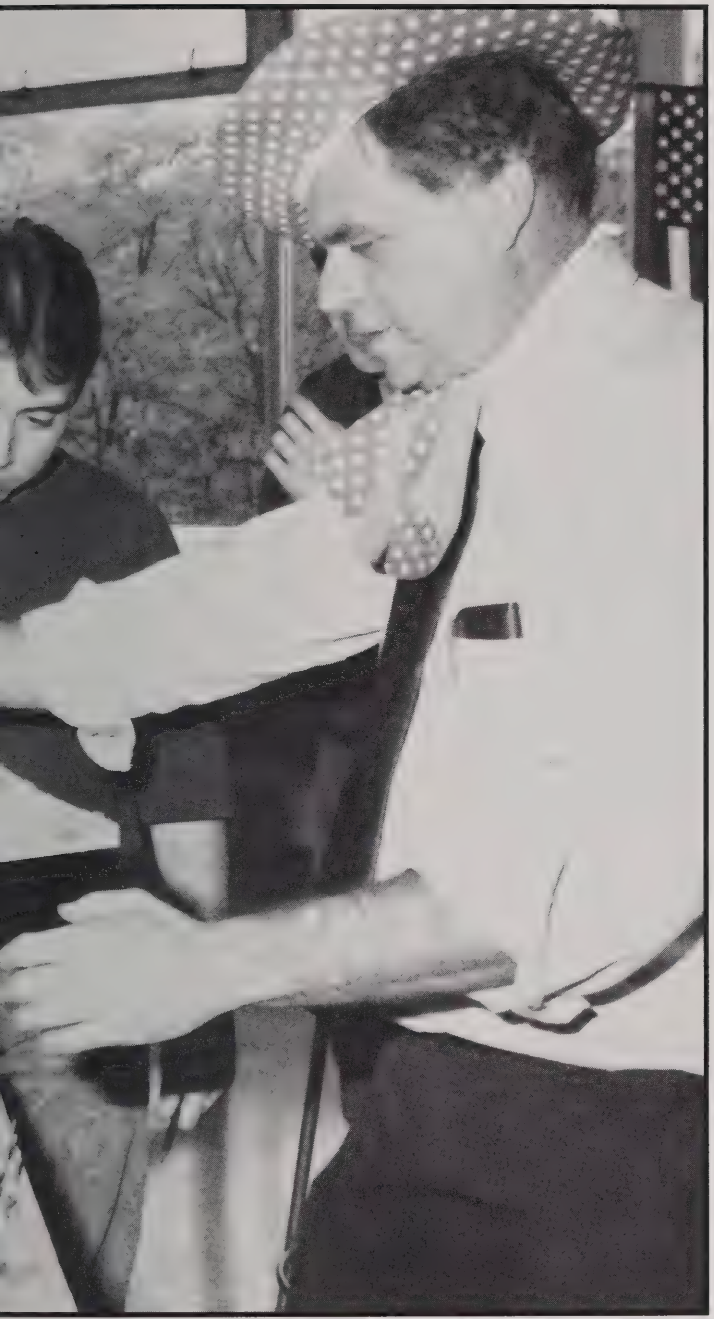
INT'L NEWS

Faculty



Four years ago as we entered Waltham High as freshmen we were faced with yet another transition in life. The faculty and staff helped guide us in the right direction, to make the change as smooth as possible. They were always there to lend a helping hand, give advice, or just be a friend.

All of their hard work and academic talent contributed to our sucessfull graduation. We may not have appreciated their knowledge and skills while we were still in school but now that the Class of 1992 has entered the "real world" we would like to thank you for what you do best.

YEARBOOK DEDICATION

MR. NEYLON

The Class of 1992 has chosen to dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Thomas Neylon. Mr. Neylon joined the faculty at Waltham High School in 1957 as a social studies teacher. He remained in this position for fourteen years and then was elected by the school committee to serve as a housemaster.

During his time here at Waltham High, Mr. Neylon also served as faculty advisor to the "Mirror", driver education teacher, president of the Waltham Educators Association, and a member of the Massachusetts Teachers Association. He graduated from Keith Academy in Lowell, received an undergraduate degree from Oblate College in Washington, D.C., and a Masters Degree in Education from Boston College. He also has done additional graduate work at Boston College and at the University of Lowell. He has been married to his wife Mary for thirty-three years and they have five children. Mr. Neylon became housemaster for the Class of 1992 when we arrived here four years ago. His knowledge and experience gained here at Waltham High helped us in our first few years in high school. Since retiring in June of 1991, he has remained very much involved with our class and attends all of our senior activities. Mr. Neylon, we wish you the best of luck, and thank you for all you have done for us.

Mr. Piantedosi

In the fall of 1990, Mr. Anthony Piantedosi was appointed substitute housemaster for the class of 1991. The following summer, he was named our permanent housemaster.

Mr. Piantedosi graduated from Waltham High School in 1966, and went on to receive a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration and a Master degree in Education from Suffolk University. He was certified as a teacher and came to Waltham High in 1972.

Mr. P., as he is called, can often be seen cheering on the Hawks at sports events, teaching driver education, coaching Little League baseball, and helping out at dances and other activities both at the high school and throughout the city. Along with his wife Susan, and his three sons, he is always willing to give a helping hand. His ability to reach out to others enabled us to make the transition to a new housemaster an easier one. He quickly gained the trust of our class through his willingness to listen to anything that was important to us. He showed his caring and deep concern for each inidividual class member by not only listening to our problems, but also by helping us to find solutions. During the past two years, Mr. P. has been a teacher, an advisor, and most of all, a good friend. Mr. Piantedosi, thank you for all the time and support which you have given to the Class of 1992. It is with great pleasure that we dedicate this yearbook to you.

Mr. Grant

Throughout our four years at Waltham High School, we have been influenced by many teachers. However, for the Class of 1992, one particular faculty member stands out above the rest. He is a graduate of the Waltham High School class of 1964. He then attended Boston State where he received a Bachelor of Science degree and a Masters Degree in Education.

He joined the faculty of Waltham High in 1968 as an Earth Science and Physics teacher. This former advisor of the Student Council is now a coach of the Hawks ski team. He took over as yearbook advisor for the 1992 "Mirror". This was his first year working on the yearbook, and so he was learning the skills needed himself, and advising the yearbook staff at the same time. During this period of economic crisis, he has managed to maintain the high quality status of our yearbook. His wife Norma and their three sons have also dedicated much of their time to make our yearbook the best it can be. They have made many personal sacrifices for the benefit of our class.

Many qualities are necessary to be a successful yearbook advisor. Among these are immeasurable patience, undying commitment, extraordinary business and organization skills, and above all, a great sense of humor.

He has shown all of these qualities and more. For all that he has done for us, we would like to take this opportunity to thank him by dedicating our yearbook to Mr.Grant.

VOCATIONAL DEDICATION

Mrs. Schichilone

The Class of 1992, would like to dedicate our portion of the yearbook to Mrs. Schichilone, a teacher who has provided many exceptional years of service to all the students and staff a the Waltham Vocational High School. She has not only taught from a strong base of knowledge, but also from a sincere desire to help her students succeed in all their future goals. She was always there to help when we needed her.

To Mrs. Schichilone, may you always be there for each senior class. Without a teacher like you, our senior class would not have been the same.

Mr. Young

Nineteen years ago, a young man graduated from Waltham High in the Class of 1973. This same student wrote in the yearbook to his fellow classmates that he was not out to conquer the world, but just wanted to do his part. He also stated in 1973 that he hoped to be successful as a high school teacher. That dream has certainly come true.

Five years later, that same man graduated form Northeastern University and began his teaching career in the Waltham School System. He joined the staff of Kennedy Junior High School as a science teacher. In 1983 Waltham Vocational High School was privileged to have this man as a ninth grade math and science teacher.

This is where the Class of 1992 met Mr. Colin Young. As freshmen, we learned very quickly that our habits would have to change if we were to survive in Mr. Young's class. The greatest lessons that we learned from Mr. Young were to be proud of our work, be neat, pass in complete assignments and most of all, be prepared for class, and we mean, be prepared.

He laid the foundation not only by demonstrating his knowledge in this teaching, but by being a role model to all of us.

Mr. Young prepared us for the next four years. He never stopped reminding us that he was still our teacher. He was there for all of our activities and events throughout our high school years.

To Mr. Young, may you always be there to greet the ninth grade class. Without teachers like you, we would not be where we are today. It is with great pride and honor that we, the Class of 1992, dedicate this portion of the yearbook to you.

Sports

The football team provided Waltham, both the school and the city, with enough excitement to last a lifetime. The members of our 1991 football squad will re-live the memories of an 11-0 season for the rest of their lives. And who can ever forget the thrilling 21-20 overtime victory over Bridgewater-Raynham in the Super Bowl on an extra point by Steve Patten after a Rupert English touchdown!

Other highlights of the fall included Girls' Soccer in the State Tournament and individual performers in Girls' Swimming, Golf, and Girls' Volleyball.

The winter season brought the Girls' Basketball squad to the State Tournament. Skiing also produced some outstanding individual achievements which helped the teams to finish seventh in the State Ski Championships. Of Special note, the W.H.S. Wrestling team had a great season under second-year coach, Ted Neil. Posting a 15-6 record, the team produced a State Champion in Ryan Robichaud, and a sectional champ in Claudie DeCole. For the second straight year our Girls' Tennis team (10-6) qualified for the MJAA Tournament.

The Forte Awards, presented by the Disabled American Veterans in May, were awarded to Jeff Fuller and Angelike Kefalas.

"TIME TO REMEMBER A CHAMPION"

At the start of the season, no one expected the 1991 Hawks to become one of the greatest teams in Waltham's history. The players demonstrated their determination during the double practice sessions in August, but despite this, outsiders still harbored a lack of confidence in the team. Reporters would write, "Waltham has some good running backs but they're too small to win the Greater Boston League. They'll probably be 7-3 or 8-2 at best." However, this discouragement served to motivate the team. It propelled the Hawks not only to win the Greater Boston League, but to make their way to the Division I Playoffs for the first time in the school's history.

Over the course of the season, many stars began to shine. Rupert English and Matt Quinn bowled over opposing teams. Jeff Fuller showed both his passing and running skills as quarterback, and the defense was sparked by Joe Recine, Rupen Soultanian, and Sean McShane. Yet overall, the dream season was the result of the hard work of the entire team and the guidance of Coach Keohane. "The players were all links on a long chain," said Keohane.

"Up and over!" Jeff

"Calling the shots!" Coach Taranto

The team was lucky enough to control its own destiny this year; as long as they kept winning, they stayed on top. The team overcame adversity to earn many of its victories. In particular, playing Arlington without star running back Rupert English proved to be a challenge. But the team, led by Jeff Fuller who ran for three touchdowns, routed Arlington 29-7. Teamwork was what won the game for the Hawks.

Rupert! Rupert! Rupert!

The pivotal game of the regular season came when the Hawks traveled to Malden. At the beginning of the season, Malden was the team everyone expected to win the G.B.L. Nevertheless, their high stature in the eyes of others only created a more intense spirit among the Hawks, who wanted to prove their own strength. Consequently, while Waltham's defense shut down the Tornadoes' game, the powerful Hawks proved themselves unstoppable. Waltham trounced Malden, with Rupert English and Jeff Fuller each running for two touchdowns.

With the win, the Hawks clinched the G.B.L. title for the first time in sixteen years and began to look toward an undefeated season. Three games later, they had achieved the first undefeated season since 1965.

The biggest game of the year came in December: The Division I Playoff versus Bridgewater-Raynham. This was the first time in W.H.S. history that the team had made it this far. Coach Keohane, expressing his confidence in the team, said, "With the character of our team, we knew if a close game ever came up, the seniors would fight to the end." Indeed, it ended up being the closest game of the year. The Hawks won 21-20 on an extra point by Steve Patten, following Rupert English's touchdown run in overtime.

The teamwork of the Hawks brought them to the highest plateau ever reached in Waltham's history. Rupert English, who gained 116 yards in the effort, said it best, "We came through when it mattered." The spirit of the team carried it far beyond the expected season.

FOOTBALL CHEERLEADERS

Overall, the 1991 Football Cheerleading season went well. The season began in early July when the squad attended the Universal Cheerleading Association (U.C.A.) Camp at Emmanuel College. They got to know each other well and became a unit. They also learned how to cheer and dance, and ended up coming home with three awards.

When the football season began, they were optimistic about how the team would do. Each cheerleader picked a senior football player, and they supported their players all year with boxes filled with baked goods, decorated lockers, and their sideline cheering. Well, their cheers paid off! The football team achieved an amazing 11-0 record, which was an inspiration for the whole squad. The cheerleaders said that cheering for a team that never lost was just incredible, and it made them cheer the best they could.

Fund raising was a big part of cheerleading this year. The squad began early in the summer to try to raise money. They sold candy, held raffles, collected cans, held a car wash and a "bowlerama," and even sold decorated pumpkins at the Mayor's Picnic. With all the money they raised, they bought "awesome" leather coats.

The squad had many good times, including the three rallies they were in, the homecoming game, and the playoff game. The bonfire rally was especially memorable. Wearing their players' football shirts, the cheerleaders did stunts, a dance, and a cute skit with the players. It was a new and different event, and they were happy to participate.

The playoff game was the most exciting event of the season. The squad described it as the greatest feeling just to be there. Supporting the number one team in the league was fantastic, but winning by one point - there is no way to explain the feeling.

All in all, Coaches Jane and Jacqueline lead the squad well. The good times the squad had will never be forgotten. While working hard and having fun, the cheerleaders learned to love each other. Practices, games, and bus rides added up to spending a lot of time together. They shared all their problems, disappointments, and moments of joy. They were the best they could be, and that's what cheerleading is all about.

"ANOTHER STEP UP"

Girls' Swim Team

"This is the best team I've had here in six years," said coach Phil Richmond of this year's team. Their record of 5-8 proves it, and betters their previous 4-8. In addition, the girls have successfully defended their title as Independent League Champs.

Starting off the season, the young team needed to fill the gaps that graduation had left. The only two returning seniors, Sue Casey and Christine McLeod, enthusiastically took on their roles as co-captains, utilizing their years of experience.

Along with Casey and McLeod's leadership, the grueling long hours of practice paid off for the team in their biggest meet against Brockton. Last year, the Lady Hawks splashed their way to a mere two point win. Hoping to increase the margin this year, they came through with a 126-54 slaughter of the Boxers. The Hawks' determination definitely triumphed over the Boxers' bid for revenge. For the seniors, it was one of the season's highlights, second only to becoming league champs for the second year.

Also, for the third year in a row, junior Karen Martin brought the team to the sectional swim meet by qualifying in several events. This allowed the incredible record-breaking freestyle relay team of Martin, sophomores Eileen Williams and Renee LeBlanc, and freshman Jenn Wilson to qualify for the state championship meet.

Both Sue and Christine give credit not only to coach Phil Richmond and assistant coach Pam Penton, but also to the work of the younger swimmers. "We started practices at the end of August, and even had double-sessions. If we had done that when I first joined the team, I might have walked out, but our freshmen fought through it with the rest of the team, and even took the pressure better than some of the older kids. They were inspiring," said co-captain Sue Casey. This team of Lady Hawks is a proud group of girls, and they deserve to be. Their dedication made them a close-knit team, and their successes brought them even closer together.

HAWKS SWIM TO STATES

Although the Boy's Swim Team may not have had a winning season this year, it has been successful. For the first time in several years, a swimmer has qualified to compete in the State Championship Meet at Holy Cross on March 7, 1992. This swimmer is Junior Captain Donnie Lucente. Donnie qualified in the 100 yard backstroke with a time of 1.01.00, and swam well at the state meet. Lucente also represented W.H.S. at the North Sectional Meet where he qualified for six events, but swam the 50 yard freestyle and the 100 yard backstroke.

Shawn Dunton, another strong junior swimmer also competed at the North Sectionals in the 100 yard breaststroke and swam well.

The other members of the swim team who represented Waltham in the Sectional and State Meets were Senior Ed Kelly, Sophomore Steve Mercado, and Freshmen Kevin Delaney and Steve Farrell.

These six swimmers along with Seniors Ben Haggerty, Steve Neville, Sophomore Carlos Mercado and Freshmen Jonathan Clarke, Joe Basil, and John Neville all helped the team to a pretty successful season.

BOYS' SOCCER

Ben saves the day!

Demosthenes Dominique

Through the years, the Boys' Soccer Team had always been a tough competitor, and this year was no exception. While undergoing a rebuilding process, the team remained productive. Coach John Simeone said, "It was a stressful but a successful season."

The team had four wins, two ties, and some close losses as they defeated tough opponents such as Everett (5-3) and Revere (3-0). On the field, Tri-Captains Ben Mele, Nhan Do, and Chris Giunta all displayed excellent leadership and spirit which will carry forth into future years. Also putting in a solid effort every game were seniors Ralph Brutus, Dennis Furey, Peter Kefalas Rodolphe Lallemand, Roberto Magno, Steve Maguire and Lovely Sanon. Stand-outs Maguire and Wilder were chosen as Greater Boston League All-Stars.

Although the overall record was disappointing, the future looks good thanks to the efforts of this year's team.

"Simply The Best"

This year, the Waltham High Girls' Soccer team, coached by John Kelly, had another great season. With an overall record of 11-6-1, the Lady Hawks qualified for the state tournament for the third year in a row. The Lady Hawks were 9-2-1 in the Greater Boston League, which was good for second place. Also, Susanne Hardiman and Kate Dacey were second and third in the league for scoring, with 22 and 21 points respectively.

Behind the leadership of senior Tri-Captains Darcy, Hardiman, and Dacey, the Hawks were hard to beat. The girls started off their season with an exciting victory over Brockton by a score of 3-1. It marked the first time the girls' soccer team had beaten Brockton in eight years. Dacey scored two goals to lead the Hawks. Also coming out of the game was the explosive action created by senior Danelle Drew, who stepped up and did an excellent job at halfback.

Another exciting game was when the Hawks beat Arlington 3-0. With the hard work of seniors Caroline Feeney and Kristin Gaeta at defense, the Hawks were able to earn their first shutout of the season.

Senior Maura Darcy did a super job at halfback, connecting well with teammates to help score goals. A surprise this year for the Hawks was senior Gretchen Lucas, who filled in admirably at stopper, doing an exceptional job. Another senior who did a sound job on defense was Erika Keirstead.

Remember ladies, YES!!, you are and always will be "Simply the Best," because no one works harder than you, and no one has as much pride, commitment, and intensity as you!

TIME FOR GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL

They were set to win, determined, and no obstacles could deter them. The Girls' Volleyball Team had a slow start, but they persevered. They received a boost in spirits with their hard-fought win over Acton-Boxboro,and this victory spurred them to shake off their past losses.

The team struggled this season, but their devotion was excellent. The three hours of daily practice, led by Coach Larraine Bogosian helped create a tough team.

Patrizia Rametta was the team's captain, an expert with four years of experience on the team. She kept up the team's spirit with her encouraging words. "Okay, let's break their serve, shake it off!" Server Christine Kazanjian gained many points for the team with her powerful serves; setter Barbara Sinclair always did a great job setting the ball to the spiker; and Kristin Illsley was adept at bumping or spiking the ball to the other side of the court.

"Every time I walk in to a game . . . I just have that strong feeling that we are going to win," said Coach Bogosian.

The Junior Varsity team also put in a solid effort. The players displayed both strength and spirit throughout the course of the season. Setter Silvia Tracanna, back row server Cara Arrigo, spiker Michele LeBlanc, and server Roula Qaqish all worked together with the team to keep up the intensity. That's the way HAWKS! Keep up the spirit!

GOLF TEAM REMEMBERS FORE!-EVER!

This year, under the guidance of Captains Tom Furey and Jason Cormier, as well as the coaching of Leonard Sorin, the golf team had a winning record. The returning seniors on the team, Dan Driscoll, Sam Dagostino, Matt Hinckley, and Corey Black, led the way in many of the matches. Despite playing on new courses, the team played well enough to make it to the states for the first time ever.

For displaying their talent on the golf course, Cormier, Driscoll, and Furey all made the Greater Boston League All Star Team. In addition, Furey was the Most Valuable Player of the league. The dedicated players all worked together to make for a victorious season.

Coached by Andy LeBlanc and led by captain Bob Griffith, the Waltham Hawks boys and girls cross country members ran their hardest in the 1991 season. The boys included talented runners Peter Seminara, Jude Seminara, and Matthew Philpott. Ann Jones, Laurie Pouliot, Alicia Poirier, and Kim Sayer made up the small but dedicated girls' team. Running 3 to 5 miles each day in the cold winter was difficult, but the efforts showed in the winning results, as each runner was able to achieve their personal goals. All home meets took place at Brandeis University and while the competition was fierce, the Hawks ran in determination throughout the season. Many thanks to the cross-country team for their inner strength and true Hawks spirit!

A TIME FOR..... GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The 1991-92 Girls' Basketball Team, coached by Robert Conners, had a successful season. Led by senior Co-captains Maura Darcy and Erika Keirstead, the team completed its season with an 11-11 record. The squad faced some very tough competition this year, but with hard work, they proved themselves fit for the challenge. Throughout the season, they displayed their dedication and commitment.

Seniors Julie Gallant and Maureen O'Connor helped control the inside game for the Lady Hawks, while freshman Alyssa Ricci showed true talent and energy. Other sparks for the team were junior Sam Dutily and sophomore Stacey Conners, who paired up as an unstoppable duo.

The Hawks qualified for the tournament for the fourth year in a row, but lost in the second round after fighting to the end. Although the team was very young this year, it showed much potential for a winning season next year.

AND BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Boys' Basketball Team experienced a season packed with action and fun. The performance of the team was praiseworthy; there were four wins and a number of close games. "If the close games were won, they would have changed the season," Coach Cacciatore said.

The team was lead by Co-captains Jeff Fuller and Mike Wilder, as well as seniors Dennis Furey and Danny Driscoll. Coaching the team were Mr. Joe Cacciatore, Mr. Sorin, and Mr. J. Cox. The players "worked really hard, with a very positive attitude, to improve as a young team . . . " added Coach Cacciatore.

One of the memorable highlights of the season was the tournament game with Saint John's High School. The Hawks performed exquisitely to achieve a startling victory.

In the second round of the tournament, Waltham went up against Everett, one of the top teams in the state. The Hawks stayed in the game to the end, falling short of victory by just a small margin. Overall, the Hawks' success this season was remarkable and will long be remembered.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL CHEERLEADERS

The sixteen basketball cheerleaders were the most dedicated fans of the Waltham Hawks Basketball Team. Although the boys had a rough season, the cheerleaders tried their hardest to keep up the boys' morale. The squad was just like a family. They went to cheering camp together and practically lived together during the season, having numerous practices and a tough schedule of up to three games a week.

The cheerleaders were able to become close friends with the basketball players early in the season. At the winter rally, many laughs were shared when the boys joined with the cheerleaders to perform stunts and mounts.

The basketball cheerleaders cheered the team on to victory at their end of season tournament. In return, some of the players cheered the girls on at a league competition when the season closed.

GIRLS' INDOOR TRACK

"Running Like the Wind"

The 1991-92 Indoor Girls' Track Team didn't have much depth, but they did have a lot of energy, according to Coach Kent Hales. The team was small, with members Kim Sayers, Michelle Gruber Beatrice Gaunthier, Ann Caterino, Jenn Wilson, Jamie Bonica, Katie Dowcett, Jessica Madden, Sabrina Rosenberg, Cara Ward, Deanna Smith, Heather Drew, and Ann Jones. Captains were seniors Kerry Dufromont, Maureen Galvin, Angelike Kefalas, and Jenn Dean.

The supply of sprinters were abundant this season, in comparison to the few who ran distance. The toughest competitors were Cambridge, Peabody, and Somerville. Unfortunately, the team only had one win (Medford) out of seven meets.

There were some bright spots in the seemingly unsuccessful season. The Indoor Track Team has long had the tradition of practicing outdoors in the biting winter cold. This year, Kent arranged for the team to practice at Brandeis' indoor athletic facility three days each week. Not only was it fun to practice on the springy track, but sometimes the girls spotted Celtics players on the premises! In addition, the team has had skimpy and uncomfortable uniforms for many years, and they finally were given new, roomier attire for their races. Most importantly, many members of the team were able to achieve personal bests in their events. Some members, such as senior Angelike Kefalas, even qualified for the state meets. So the season wasn't so bad after all!

BOYS' INDOOR TRACK

This year's Boys' Varsity Indoor Track Team had a truly stellar season, posting a winning record of 5-2-1 overall. With returning seniors Ralph Brutus, Ricardo Prudent, Rupert English, Joe Dragone, Steve Deprofio, Gregg LeBlanc, Sanjay Patel, Rudy Lallemand, and Peter Kefalas, the league's opposing track teams didn't stand a chance.

Defeating such foes as Revere, Somerville, and Arlington, the team propelled itself toward a showdown with archrivals Peabody and Cambridge. Although they lost a close meet against Cambridge and an even closer meet against Peabody (losing by just one point), the team's spirits remained high. Francois Joseph vowed that the team would go unbeaten during the outdoor season.

The freshman power trio Matt Philpott, Jason Burke, and Mark Schofield, in combination with Coach Keohane's "I'm gonna work you to the bone!" attitude, helped the team to achieve its goals.

In addition to placing third in the Greater Boston League Championships, the team proved its determination and strength in its close games, such as against Peabody. It is certainly a team to be reckoned with in the future. Congratulations to the successful effort given by all the members of the Indoor Track Team.

HOCKEY

Despite the hockey team's lack of numbers, the Hawks fell short of qualifying for the state tournament by only one game. The Hawks soared to a winning season of 10-8-2, accomplishing many goals along the way. Even with injuries to key players, the team's effort remained constant and the players' determination never failed.

Senior Co-captain Jason Cormier, in combination with linemates Sean McShane and Steve Richard, led the team in scoring with an amazing line total of 156 points. Other strong offensive contributions came from seniors Joe Casella, Jeff Centofanti, Mike Loser, and John Casella. When the entire offense was working together as a unit, it was unstoppable.

The team also found much of its strength through its defense. Senior goalie Brendan Campbell was injured in the early part of the season due to a serious knee injury, but remained to help the cause by achieving a series of personal highlights. He played superbly in the latter part of the season, shutting out the Red Raiders of Watertown.

The team's defense was rounded out by a crushing line. Senior Co-captains Mike Bourgeois and Chris Giunta performed extremely well, and Jamie Cashman and Mike Aucoin aided in the defensive struggle.

Even though the team did not make it to the state tournament, they proved that hard work and determination are rewarded. Congratulations on achieving a great, winning season.

HOCKEY CHEERLEADERS

The 1991-92 hockey season brought a lot of changes for the hockey cheerleading squad. Half of the squad was made up of new members due to last years large number of graduating seniors. The entire cheering squad was made up of fifteen girls: Keri Burgess, Karen Crane, Michelle Creamer, Samantha D'Addario, Lorena Livoli, Stacey Passerello, Gloria Velis, Jenn Cavicchi, Daniella Lembo, Gabrielle LeBlanc, Mandy Mullaney, Kim Parella, Kerri Verrocchi, Julie Ward, and Jenn MacKenzie.

It took a while for the squad to come together as a team, but once they did, the results were outstanding. They held fundraisers such as the car wash, can drive, and candy sales to raise money for their squad jackets. They showed how spirited they were by participating for the first time in the Waltham Homecoming Parade. They then demonstrated their willingness to work by attending a clinic where they were taught some of their winning cheerleading traits!

When the hockey games began, the squad was very excited. They cheered well and helped to make the whole hockey experience complete for the spectators and they helped to keep up the team's morale.

The rally which they participated in was a huge success. The cheerleaders practiced hard and performed a routine with all new exciting stunts. They also helped to produce the comedy part of the rally when the senior hockey players donned the cheerleaders' skirts and challenged the senior girls to a game. The routine was such a hit that they were invited to perform at the Waltham Youth Hockey Awards Night where they were well received.

The hockey cheerleading squad worked hard and enjoyed themselves. They brought the team's abilities to an all time high, and best of all, they became friends. They thank each other and the coaches for the best year of cheering yet.

Remember.........THE 1992

The 1991-92 ski team displayed highly successful results. This season the girls' team captured the title of Bay State League champs, while the boys' earned the Division Championship title. The team members were not sure how they would fare before the '92 season began, but with hard work and dedication, both teams finished on top.

With the help and support of coaches Tim Reed, Steve Grant, and Bob Hazel, the team conditioned and practiced hard in order to become state material. Although the results were not the best at state competition, it was an accomplishment in itself to reach Berkshire East. Contributors in this event were seniors Susanne Hardiman, Gretchen Lucus, Gregg LeBlanc, Corey Black, Jason

The 1992-93 season should also prove triumphant with the return of Jerry Lane, who placed eighth overall in the state meet, and also held a record of consecutive first place wins throughout the season.

The success of the ski team and good times they shared will be cherished forever.

WRESTLING TEAM

The Waltham High Wrestling Team enjoyed a victorious season this year with a record of 15-5-1. Led by Tri-captains Matt Quinn, Joe Recine, and Alan Walsh, the Hawks placed high in several tournaments throughout the season, including second at West Roxbury and fourth at Methuen.

Senior Matt Quinn, at 189 lbs, went undefeated with 17 wins in dual meet matches. Matt placed second at the sectional tournament held here at Waltham High and went on to the states.

Senior Co-captain Alan Walsh posted a winning record with over 15 wins in the highly competitive 119 lb weight class.

Also working for the Hawks varsity squad were sophomore P.J. Cameron (103 lbs), 5th in New England 2nd in the state; Claudie Decole (125 lbs), 1st in the sectionals; Choung Ly (130 lbs), Alex Scalisi (130), Brian Wallace (135), Steven Febonio (140), Jeff Hoffman (140), Eric Delosa (145), Frank Lombardo (152), Eric Gibbson (160), and State Champion Ryan Robichaud (171). Wrestlers on the J.V. squad included Phil Foster, Chris Demeo, Brian Dean, and Paul Eastman.

Returning for his second year as head coach, Ted Neil guided the Hawks through the season and improved their performance by over 50%. Special one on one coaching was provided by assistants James Tinker(bell) and Steven (GI Joe) Minarovich.

Graduating Hawks wish to extend thanks to all people involved with the team and hope for the continuing success of future teams.

The 1992 Lacrosse team led by Senior co-captians Mike Quaranto and Mike Bourgeois unfortunately went winless with an 0-18 record. Skills and confidence improved with every game despite what the scoreboard said. This group of fine young athletes was guided by Coaches Steve Duffy and Steve O'Reilly. Although it was their first year at the helm they helped the players' momentum improve drastically over the season.

GIRLS' TENNIS

Proving the Waltham Girls' Tennis Team a force to be reckoned with, the Lady Hawks soared into the tournament for the second year in a row and the second time in the history of Waltham tennis.

Achieving a season record of 10-6, the team performed beyond Coach Jay Levine's expectations. "The key is that the team got so psyched and beat Arlington," said Levine. This thrust the girls into third place in the Greater Boston League.

In the Play-offs, the Hawks went up against Chelmsford. What transpired was a close match,with the Hawks succumbing 2-3.

Senior tri-captain Gretchen Lucas, playing doubles in the tournament, "went out on a really positive note," said Levine. She and junior Amy Tsao won a tremendous match under pressure.

At third singles, senior tri-captain Helene Grossman turned around a 1-4 deficit to win 7-5 in the first set. She then took the second set 6-4, outlasting her opponent in some marathon rallies. "She's patient and gets the ball back," Levine said of Grossman.

Levine also praised senior tri-captain Susanne Hardiman, who "played very courageously" at first singles in the tournament. Throughout her tennis career, Hardiman "gave more effort than was asked for," said Levine. "She hits the ball really hard, and she runs."

Senior Tali Kastner "played on the edge of varsity all season," said Levine. "The fates had it that she got to play the last (regular season) match on the varsity squad." She and sophomore Barbara Leboff underwent an exciting match against their Everett counterparts.They came close to pulling off the win, but wound up falling short in the third set.

A precedent was set last year when the Lady Hawks made the state tennis tournament for the first time ever. That legacy was carried on by this year's team, thanks to the commitment and hard work of players. May post season play become a tradition in Waltham Girls' Tennis, inspiring future teams to success.

BOYS' TENNIS

The boys tennis team played with spirit and a positive attitude throughout a disappointing season. The performance of the team, and the way the members of the team played, signifies a great change from the past years, "...they were more competitive this year, I saw improvement throughout the team,"said Coach Sinerate.The players were well prepared to start the season. They spent hours practicing on the courts of Bentley College, exercising, and even had aerobic workouts. The opposing teams were very tough and competitive and Waltham boys' tennis team had a hard time achieving a winning season. "Many games should have been won," Sinerate said. Even though the beginning of the season was not promising, members of the team continued to play more aggressively. This led to individual wins by junior, Mike Forte, and senior, Samy Sidhom. In the doubles position, Chris Jensen and Bob McKenna had many winning games and many close losses. Two of the best players on the team, seniors Samy Sidhom and Andy Mullin are graduating this year but the team will continue to work hard for the upcoming season. "With the help of Joe Agostino, Mike Forte, Chris Jensen, Bob McKenna, and Brian Kiernan next season should be better because of their experience; I believe we will have winning seasons in the future."said Coach Sinerate

GIRLS' SOFTBALL

The Waltham Varsity Softball team had a very successful 1992 season. The Hawks got off to a slow start and won only one of its first five games. The reason for the slow start was a combination of new players at the Varsity level and a few remaining players playing different positions.

Once everyone became familiar with Varsity play, things started to click. Led by Senior captains Maura Darcy and Maureen O'Connor, the Hawks won ten of their last twelve games. They beat both Somerville and Brockton; teams they had lost to the first time they played.

Senior outfielders Maura Darcy, Maureen O'Connor and Michelle Landry all assisted in bringing the team to the State Tournament. The captains Maura Darcy,Brenda Burke and Maureen O'Connor kept the team in the game at all times. Their constant cheering and positive support was a big plus for the younger players. All three seniors helped by getting some key hits in the offensive attack and made some great plays defensively. Michelle Landry also pitched two games and ended up with a 2 - 0 record.

With their fantastic finish, the Hawks ended their season with a 12 - 6 record and made the state tournament. The team drew the higher seeded Boston English in the first round and beat them handily. In the quarter finals, the Hawks drew a tough Everett team and lost. Waltham still had a great and enjoyable season!

Three players were recognized for their fine play. Junior shortstop Sam Dutily, Junior catcher and tri-captain Brenda Burke, and Junior pitcher Stacey Gamble were all named to the Greater Boston League All Star team.

BASEBALL

The 1992 Baseball Team had a great season although they ended the year one game shy of qualifying for the state tournament. The Hawks were led this year by Senior Captains Jeff Fuller and Matt Quinn. They, along with the other seniors gave their best efforts for the team. The players learned to work together as a team, and to stick together through both the wins and the losses. There was never a dull moment for the Hawks as they played their last season as the Waltham High School Varsity Baseball Team.

BOYS' TRACK

The 1992 Boys' Spring Track Team had a very large turnout this year. The outdoor team was guided by Coaches Danny Keohane, Fred Bigot, and L. Kent Hales. Although it was Fred Bigot's first year as coach, his knowledge of the sport was greatly appreciated by the team.

The team had a successful season, with a 7-1 record. The best in the league, W.H.S.'s 4 X 100 relay team went undefeated throughout the whole season. Steven Maguire, John Ferguson, Ricardo Prudent, Ralph Brutus, Tim Quinn, Francois Joseph, Rupert English, and Sanjay Patel alternated as members of the relay team throughout the season. An exciting event in track history occurred when junior Francois Joseph tied the school record in the 220 yard dash.

The athletes increased their talents and learned to work together as a team. Not only that, but they had fun times that they'll remember for years.

GIRLS' TRACK

The 1992 Waltham High School Girls Track team was faced with a tough season. This year's competitors put the girls to the test. With the help of Coach L. Kent Hales and captains Kerry Dufromont, Maureen Galvin, Angelike Kefalas, and Jennifer Dean, the team competed to the best of their ability. Although they came out with a record of 1-6, the team can say that the season was a memorable one. Angelike Kefalas qualified at the end of the season for the state meet and did quite well. With the help of underclassmen Stacy Connors and Kim Sayers, the team should be strong in years to come.

Some of the most important aspects of Waltham High School are the arts programs. These programs include: String Orchestra, Jazz Band, Wind Ensemble, Marching Band, Chorus, Jazz Choir, Show Choir, and Drama. Participation in these programs make students feel a part of Waltham High School. The arts enable students and faculty to express themselves. They do not only have a good time, but they work very hard to increase their talents. Waltham High is very proud of all the arts programs and especially the dedicated students and faculty who participated and who continue to participate in them.

Beyond the Goal

As beginner instrumental players, students remember playing in the annual Waltham Music Department Vertical Concerts, where each successive level of orchestra or band performed a few pieces. The event always culminated with the high school orchestra or band. To students' eight-year-old ears, the sound was magnificent. It became a goal, a dream that kept students going through long, grueling hours of practice.

When students finally made it to the high school, it was with great apprehension that they approached their first music class. It looked as though director Peter Lancto would live up to his reputation of being fierce and demanding. Surrounded by upperclassmen, newcomers dutifully hid their trembling knees and sat down to listen. They had no idea that one class would come to mean so much.

Wind Ensemble

Four years later, music students know that their seemingly terrifying conductor is actually a sweetheart. His drive simply makes students live up to their potential. He works players hard, but in the end it pays off. Nadine Pomeroy, co-director of the Wind Ensemble, rounds off students' musical education by focusing on proper warm-up and intonation, as well as rhythm and general musicality. The skills she teaches contribute a great deal to improving the overall sound of the band.

Over the years, both the Waltham High School Orchestra and Wind Ensemble have won multiple medals by competing in state competitions. While neither group competed this past year, their accomplishments were numerous. Besides the annual vertical concert, the Orchestra and Wind Ensemble performed several other concerts throughout the year. In addition, both groups contributed to school events. They were important parts of the Student Santa assemblies, and pep rallies would not have been the same without the spirited music of the band.

When their four years of high school are over, students suddenly discover that they have learned much more than just music. They have conquered stage fright and realized the value of teamwork, skills that will stay with them forever. Many people who had trouble with academics found a sense of pride in their music that kept them coming back to school on days when dropping out seemed preferable.

The power of music brought together a bunch of people who might never have met. With common ground to stand on, students were able to overlook differences and form friendships that will last a lifetime. The perseverance that pressed students onward toward their goal became the key to achieving much more. They went beyond the goal into a place where hard work, dignity, and good old-fashioned fun are cherished, an experience they will never forget.

Jazz Choir

Choral Groups in Remembrance

Continuing in its proud tradition, Waltham High's Choral Department led by the tireless Mrs. Johanne McIvor, proved to be deserving of their success. Chorus, the group of over seventy students, provided entertainment for the Holiday concerts, community organizations, and senior week activities. Their selections were old favorites and contemporary music for everyone's enjoyment.

Due to unforeseen problems, the Jazz Choir did not compete this year, but rehearsed and performed regularly in their usual professional manner. This elite group of students entertained at many community functions for the elderly and the public.

Music Express, climbing to forty-five members, also prepared for two festivals. Early in the year they participated in a festival run by Oliver Ames High School in Easton, Ma. Later, in April, they competed in the Eastern Show Choir Festival at Waltham High where they earned a bronze medal. This all-girls show choir also participated in the choral activities as well as performed in community functions.

Music Unlimited once again brought an aura of pride to Waltham High as they took home the gold from both the Central Massachusetts Show Choir Festival and the Nutmeg Show Choir Festival in Conneticut. Between rehearsals and competitions, the group of 32 vocalists and 5 instrumentalists also traveled near and far. Near: throughout the city to elementary schools, nursing homes, and various other activities. Far: to Indiana where they visited two other show choirs, Purdue University and its male glee-club; and competed at Center Grove High School's "Best of the Midwest" Competition.

Music Unlimited, Music Express, the Jazz Choir and the entire chorus have been a source of pride and accomplishment to Waltham and Waltham High School. Their tradition of hard work and excellence is continuous and a product of each student's and Mrs. McIvor's dedication and talent.

The success of activities at Waltham High School is a result of careful organization by students and faculty advisors, and is dependent on the support of the student body. Homecoming this year was better than ever thanks to the added bonfire rally, where the Kings and Queens were crowned. The widely supported "Dress Up Week", the incredible parade and football game, and the hilarious scavenger hunt all added to the enjoyment of the week.

The Student Santa program was

very successful, with over 300 needy children in the Waltham area receiving gifts and toys thanks to the support of W.H.S. students and faculty members. Many students participated in Senior Revue, Dance Theatre, and the Gong Show and enjoyed showing off their talents to others. The Senior Social was well attended and became a favorite memory for all of us. Hundreds of seniors participated in these activities, showing the tremendous school spirit here at Waltham High.

This year's Homecoming Week will be well remembered for its combination of traditional and new events. As in years past, the festivities began with the annual Scavenger Hunt. The outcome was the victory of the National Honor Society, over the Student Council for first place. Next came "Dress Up Week" when the school dressed up to a different theme each day of the week. The highlight was the comical Nerd Day. That Friday, the Student Council hosted the first night rally which featured the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, Susanne Hardiman, as well as W.H.S.'s first bonfire. This event, which was attended by about one thousand people, was truly unforgettable.

On Saturday, the traditional homecoming parade proved to be its usual success. This year, the Vocational High School once again won the prize for best float. The parade was followed by a great football victory over Somerville. That night the annual homecoming dance concluded the festivities with a bang. It included a lip-synching contest and was attended by the largest crowd in recent memory. All these events made the week of October 13th one which the Class of 1992 will never forget.

Academic Decathlon

With the help and support of parents, teachers, and the community, the Waltham Academic Decathlon Team had another successful year. Once again, the team was headed by Coaches Paul Thorp and Ms. Nancy Rice..

In the regional competition, there were six categories in which team members competed: Mathematics, Language and Literature, Economics, Social Studies, Science, and Fine Arts. The team placed eighth in the regional competition, hosted by our own Waltham High School. This put the team at ninth in the state and earned them a spot in the state finals at Weymouth High School. There were two medals won in the regional competition, both by junior Moses Liskov.

The competing team at the state finals consisted of: Honors Division (A students) A.J. Hallock, Steven Weddig, and Mike Persechini; Scholastic Division (B students) Moses L¡iskov, Keri Cusick, and Poonum Agrawal; and Varsity Division (C students) Neel Pandeya, Anncy Marangoly, and Carmella Rigoli. Three categories were added to the state finals competition: Essay, Speech, and Interview. Twelve medals were earned by the competing team. Poonum Agrawal earned a gold in Science, while Neel Pandeya obtained a gold in Geography. In Speech, Carmella Rigoli took home the bronze, and Anncy Marangoly captured the silver. Steven Weddig had a remarkable showing, winning four medals in the categories of Economics, Geography, Fine Arts, and best overall score in the Honors division. Finally, Moses Liskov matched Weddig in medal count, earning medals in Economics, Science, Mathematics, and best overall score in the Scholastic division. As a whole, the team placed fifth in the state.

These achievements were only made because of the tremendous effort put forth by Coaches Paul Thorp and Nancy Rice, team members, their parents, and several teachers to whom the team will forever be in debt. Team members will always remember the Friday night pizza, the marathon Super Quiz lecture, the all-day weekend study sessions, and Diane Fossey and her mountain gorillas. (especially our own "Silverback") Seniors will truly miss the coaches and other team members. Good luck to the team in future years!

Student Santa

It was another successful year for the Student Santa Program. With the help of the National Honor Society and the Student Council, homerooms and clubs were encouraged to give money to buy gifts for needy children throughout the city of Waltham. Over three-hundred children were supported this year.

The morning of the Student Santa Assembly, homerooms and clubs could be found wrapping their gifts to Christmas carols played over the loud speaker. Soon the auditorium stage was piled high with packages along with bicycles, stuffed animals and baby carriages. Not only did the needy children benefit from this program, but the students and faculty did too. It gave everyone who participated a great feeling of the Christmas spirit.

Senior Social

On December 22nd, the third annual Senior Social was held. Flood lights illuminated the path leading up to the Paine Estate, giving a glimpse of what was in store for the night. Everyone was dressed elegantly, befitting the occasion.

It was a magical evening. The Paine Estate was beautifully decorated for the holiday season. Standing in the front room was an enormous Christmas tree. A buffet dinner was enjoyed, followed by dessert and hot chocolate. Santa Claus (played by Mr. P.) made an appearance and everyone gathered around to see who would be the chosen one to receive a gift. After all, what is Christmas without St. Nick?

From seven o'clock to midnight music filled each room, giving seniors (as well as a few hip teachers such as Mr. Cox and Mr. Goodwin) ample opportunity to show off their best dancing steps. Before the night was over, a train had formed and bounded through the entire Paine Estate. Among the night's musical highlights were the ever popular "Celebrate" and the theme song for the YMCA.

The evening concluded on a sentimental note. Everyone linked hands in a circle and swayed to the song "Proud to be an American." Teachers present remarked that this was the beginning of the end for our time together. However, the night of the Senior Social will always live in our hearts.

Senior Revue

The Senior Revue was an event which will be well remembered by cast and audience alike. Those who saw the show will recall the comic skits, the singing, and the dancing. The memories of those seniors who took part in the show will also include the excitement of being on stage, the chaos behind the scenes, as well as the unfortunate illness of Mr. Edward May.

The Revue was divided into two acts, each with a separate theme. The first half of the show consisted of songs titled with girls' names. These included "Georgia" (sung by Matt Sullivan), "Hello Dolly" (Arthur Arena), "Jean" (Danny Driscoll), "Once In Love With Amy" (Shaun McGovern), "Real Live Girl" (Bill Hanley), and "Georgie Girl" (Ryan Scafidi). Interspersed between these were individual acts of singing, dancing and instrumental duets as well as comedy skits. This portion of the show was moderated by seven Masters of Ceremonies including Brian Erba, Maureen Galvin, Bill Hanley, Jim Inzirillo, Christine Kazanjian, John Martellucci and Julie Trumbour. With the help of Mark Proia, the Assistant Director, they kept the audience laughing .(as if our singing wasn't amusing enough!)

The second act was a journey through the decades stretching from the twenties all the way to the nineties. This was achieved by performing dances taken from each time period. Members of the cast danced the Tango and the Charleston, as well as tap and ballet. The sixties featured a dance to the Beatles' "I Wanna Hold Your Hand," while the nineties brought "Good Vibrations." The show concluded with the cast in prom attire singing the finale while the Showgirls, representing the decades, strutted across the stage.

The Senior Revue represented "The Best of Times," not only of the century, but also of our senior year. During those chaotic weeks of rehearsal it seemed as if the student body was just that, one body. Together, under the direction of Robert Eagle, Deborah Peros-Finnell, and Ed May, the class of '92 put on a great show and had the best time doing so.

Teacher Appreciation Dinner

The Teacher Appreciation Dinner was held on March 24, 1992 in the cafeteria. Members of the National Honor Society and senior members of The Student Council invited all faculty members and served them salad, pasta, and Italian bread. The desserts were made by the members of the two organizations. After dinner, members and faculty played "Family Feud." This social event was an opportunity for faculty and students to put studies aside, enjoy one another's company, and thank the faculty for all they have done throughout the years.

Senior Rollerskating Night

Senior rollerskating night was a great success! For two hours, seniors came to the Wal-Lex skating center and rollerskated with their classmates. Dance Theater was better than ever in 1992. Directed and choreographed by Deborah Peros-Finnell, the show was an exciting mixture of music and dance. It kicked off with an energetic number, featuring the entire cast dancing to a mix of C + C Music Factory's "Everybody Dance Now" and Rod Stewart's "Let's Go Dancing." Other highlights included Paula Abdul's "Rock House," the theme from "Beauty and the Beast," and an encore performance to Phil Collins' "Something Happened on the Way to Heaven," which was originally performed the previous year. The level of dance ability displayed was incredible as Mrs. Peros-Finnell and the Creative Movement Dance Company took the stage for two electrifying numbers.

The second half of the show proved to be as talent-filled as the first. It included such acts as the hilarious "Let's Go Crazy" by Prince and the adorable "Kiss the Girl" from the movie The Little Mermaid. Other crowd-pleasers were the all-male performances of "Motown Philly" and "All for Love." The show ended with the entire cast dancing to "We Haven't Stopped Dancing Yet." And we won't for years to come as we remember this great event.

National Honor Society

There is a picture -- fifty-five students standing side by side on the dark stage of Robinson Auditorium, glowing candles in their hands. There are feelings -- dignity, pride, and awe. Finally, there is a chorus of voices -- students reciting the National Honor Society Pledge:

"I, being aware of the honor which is being bestowed upon me by my election to membership in the National Honor Society, do hereby pledge loyalty to this organization. May this lighted candle which we hold now be a reminder for us to seek the light of truth and to strive in every way, by word and by deed, to uphold the ideals of this society for our own welfare and that of the school."

The 1992 National Honor Society Induction Ceremony was stirring, not only for those participating, but for those in the audience. Twenty-one seniors and twelve juniors were inducted, joining the twenty-two seniors who had been installed the previous year. The significance of the occasion was impressed by the National Honor Society officers, who spoke on the standards of the society - scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

Induction night was a time for reflecting on past accomplishments, as well as contemplating future goals. The qualities which earned students membership in the National Honor Society - diligence, self-discipline, and determination - are exactly the qualities which will lead them to success in whatever pursuits they may follow.

National Honor Society

To celebrate the closing of yet another school year, members of both the National Honor Society and Student Council gathered at the Robert Treate Paine Estate for the annual banquet on May 19. Among those who commended members and advisors were: Mr. John Daddona, Superintendent of Schools; Mr. John Graceffa, Principal of Waltham High School; and Mr. Anthony Piantedosi, Senior Housemaster. Mr. Jack Cox, Advisor of the Honor Society presented awards and gifts to the officers, followed by Mr. Stephen Goodwin, Student Council Advisor, who also presented similar awards. The major award of the evening was presented by Susanne Hardiman to Miss Margaret Nolan. Miss Nolan was named Student Council and National Honor Society Woman of the Year for her fifty years of hard work and dedication to the Waltham school system. This formal event was a night to remember for both groups, as they reminisced about the enjoyable and successful events of their senior year.

STUDENT COUNCIL AND STUDENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Student Council and Student Advisory Council started off the year early, with their annual summer meeting in August. New ideas were thought of in between the great volleyball game and the barbecue lunch.

When the school year began, so did many of our events. First was Homecoming Week, which included dress up days, the parade, dance, scavenger hunt and concluded with the unforgettable school wide bonfire. In December, we co-sponsored Student Santa with the National Honor Society. This year, we were able to bring gifts to over three hundred needy children in the City of Waltham.

In March, we headed to the Cape for the annual Student Council conference. There we received many new ideas from other Student Councils from around the state which will be helpful in the years to come. On the same trip, Sarah lost the Irish bread so we had to take Jenny G's Smartfood and chips. Also, Hillary managed to get herself into a shaving cream fight with Rupen and missed a meeting while trying to clean it all out of her hair.

This year had many great events which brought all of us closer together. It made our senior year something we will never forget. Goody, we love you and will miss you next year! Thanks for making this year so much fun!

1992 Yearbook Staff

The 1992 yearbook became a success thanks to the large number of students who worked together to make it the best book possible. Many seniors and several juniors volunteered their time during free blocks, after school, on weekends, and during the summer to put the book together. Also, students assisted by getting ads from local businesses. These ads helped to defer much of the cost of the book. This year, the yearbook staff organized two fundraisers to help raise money. These included a candy sale, and a very successful Valentines Day dance with a computer match-up program. The money raised from these two events helped to pay for the color section in the front of the book.

Co-Editors Sandra Gill, Tracey Forte, and Tina Scafidi put in countless hours from September of 1991 through July of 1992 to produce this yearbook.

Mr. Stephen Grant was the 1992 yearbook advisor. He applied for, and received this position in September of 1991 and became instantly dedicated to the cause. Never having done this before, he learned along with his staff, and did everything within his power to make a great book. He took on a tremendous task, and came out with flying colors.

Despite the failing economy that our class faced this year, we were able to maintain the high quality of the Waltham High School Mirror. Thanks to Mr. Grant, the students, faculty, parents, and the Waltham community, we were able to raise the $30,000.00 needed to produce our book.

We wish the class of 1992 the best of luck, and we hope that you are thankful to the Editors and your classmates for all the time and work it took to produce the 1992 Yearbook.

Our own Alicia Gullotti played the part of Vanna White, keeping score throughout the show. The judges consisted of Jennifer Dean, President of the National Honor Society, Steve Grant, Yearbook Advisor, Deidre McCormack, Junior Housemaster, Anthony Piantedosi, Senior Housemaster, and Susanne Hardiman, President of the Student Council. The line-up consisted of mostly senior acts including the National Honor Society and The Student Council. It was a night of talent and comedy enjoyed by all!

Senior Week

FOOTSTEPS ~

by Peter R. Demerjian

Long ago—already four years—scared lonely freshman, we all came here.
Down unfamiliar corridors,
and long dark halls,
For the first time,
our footsteps would fall.
Back in those days,
together we stood,
Our minds were young,
our intentions were good.
We made new friends,
we all tried our best,
We stayed up and studied to pass every test.
It was not too long, though,
as we all looked ahead,
Our once-close footsteps started to spread.
Seeing different opportunities,
(none did we lack),
Our high school careers followed different tracks.
From the first SAT's,
to victory at Leary Field,
Our desire to succeed
would never yield.
More time passed,
and we noticed with a start,
Our footsteps were falling even further apart.
Soon we'd be leaving the friends we had known,
But in our leaving
we'd never be alone.
For throughout these halls,
in every window pane,
The echoes of our footsteps will always remain.
Soon we'll be gone
from the school we all knew,
Into the world,
the class of 92..
Listen . . . for our footsteps!

Senior Dinner

May 21 marked the day for the annual Senior Dinner. Many students, accompanied by their parents and relatives, joined faculty members in the high school cafeteria for this special event. Seated at the head table were Class, Vocational, Student Council, Student Advisory Council, and National Honor Society officers, along with the yearbook editors.

Before dinner, the class song, "For Just A Moment," was performed by Bernadette Buckley and Kristin Illsley. Throughout the evening, all present were entertained by seniors with skits from a variety of events including Senior Revue, the Gong Show, and Dance Theatre. Later, the Class Will and Superlatives were read, followed by another great performance by the W.H.S. Show Choir. Athletic awards were presented by Athletic Director, Donald Prohovich, and presentations of certificates of merit and awards were made. High School and Vocational students also gave special recognition to faculty members for their support of the class of 1992. Those recognized included: Mr. Anthony Piantedosi, Mrs. Claire Ashness, Ms. Rosemary Vinsen, Mr. Thomas Nolan, and Mrs. Barbara Schichilone. The evening concluded with the showing of the Senior Video. The video recapped memories of our senior year including footage of the championship football game and clips of seniors lip-synching to the song "Lean On Me."

Seniors present at the dinner enjoyed the time spent together as a class and will remember the night always.

Scholarship An

The Class of 1992 Scholarship and Awards Night was held on May 28 in the Robinson Auditorium. Master of Ceremonies for the night was Mr. Harold Walker. Miss Margaret Nolan gave the welcoming address and congratulated the seniors on receiving over one and a half million dollars in scholarship money. The chorus performed two selections which reflected the end of our time together as a class. Next, School Committee Key Awards were presented to eligible seniors.The Mirror Dedications were then presented by Tracey Forte, Sandra Gill, Tina Scafidi, Kristie Keane, and Brian Truesdale. Finally, scholarships and awards were presented by Mr. Graceffa and Mr. Piantedosi to the seniors. Members of the class of 1992 were well rewarded on that night for their efforts throughout high school, and were very grateful to all those who made the evening possible.

Advertisments

Each year the Waltham High School yearbook is financially supported by local businesses, fraternal groups, agencies and friends. The key to the publication of the yearbook is the substantial support from the community as advertisements are the main resource of color throughout the "Mirror". We want to extend an extra special thank you to all who supported us in these difficult economic times by contributing to this important part of the Class of 1992.

THE KIRSCH OFFICE

DEDICATED TO THE CLASS OF 1992

Your Class of 1992
Soon will be leaving Waltham High
And fondly, and somewhat sadly,
You'll bid high school days, goodbye.

You'll take with you many memories
Of the happy years you shared,
With friends, and students, and teachers
While for the future, you prepared.

That some future now awaits you
As graduation nears;
You'll proudly accept the challenge
But you'll have your doubts and fears.

Take courage, you who graduate
You have so much to give;
You'll be the ones, who'll find the road
To a better way we live.

Your path may be to college
Or to busy industry;
Whatever you have chosen,
Do it faithfully.

Farewell, Class of 1992
Our hopes all go with you;
We all take pride and wish you well,
In everything you do.

REPEATEDLY REPEATABLE

HYDRAULIC/PNEUMATIC NOZZELS

Bird Precision offers an orifice plub that will end your drilling days forever. Need a highly repeatable flow reading? Our restrictive orifice plugs start at .002" I.D. and are concentric to within .0002", no burrs or irregularities to upset flow. They're wear resistant and custom maurfactured to your specifications including internal filtration. These orifice plugs come mounted in a variety of standard threaded fittings, including NPT, or custom fabrcated plugs.

To find out more please contact Paul Baillio at 617-894-0160 extension 80 or fax your specifications to 617-894-6308.

I, Stacey Passerello, leave my squeegy bottles, and my PMS mood swings.
I, Laurie Pazzano, leave my Def Leppard pictures.
I, Traci Proia, leave all my gum to Mr. Maguire's F block Management class.
I, Matt Quinn, leave the Mighty Quinn.
I, Jennifer Sampson, leave a lifetime supply of advice on boyfriend problems.
I, Ryan Scafidi, leave my baseball number to the next "Charlie Hustle."
I, Tina Scafidi, leave all of the unwritten copy that I never received from the yearbook staff.
I, Gloria Velis, leave my four years of memories with Jason Cormier, and take along Mr. Goodwin.
I, Jay Vellante, leave one of my jean jackets.
I, Jeff Ward, leave my nickname Roper.
I, Mike Waters, leave Mr. Cappucci my perfect attendance record.
I, Erin Whalen, leave Mr. Scioli a clue.

CLASS PROPHECY

Last week on "Talk with Betty," world-renowned host Betty Jo Chiara confronted the issue of genetic engineering. The subjects of recent experiments, and guests on the show, were four sets of twins: the Fullers, the Demerjians, the Kefalas', and the Haggertys.

On the brightly lit stage, panelists asserted their opinions on the controversial issue. Physicians Christopher Andrews, Tracey Forte, Gretchen Lucas, and Sandra Gill pushed for more research into gene mapping, while psychologists Ann Kontos and Tali Kastner discussed the psychological effects of providing people glimpses into their genetic makeup. Intensifying the feverish pitch of the debate was environmentalist Jen Watts, who spoke out against the devastation that could result from fooling with nature.

The audience was overflowing with captive spectators. Rob Hersey could be seen, still wearing his Bud-Man T-shirt, and teachers Tracy Boudreau, Susanne Hardiman, Sue Casey, and Maura Darcy were accompanying their students on a field trip. Kim DeHollan cheered on her lifelong friend Betty Jo Chiara throughout the show, while Samantha D'Addario insisted on sitting directly beneath the fluorescent lighting. Celebrities noted in the front row were: basketball player Chris Giunta, Olympic cyclist P.J. LeBlanc, Oscar-winning actress Julie Trumbour, and radio announcer Jim Inzirillo. Journalist Jenn Dean reported on the event.

Outside, protesters Erin Whalen, Helene Grossman, and Tina Scafidi challenged the ethics of genetic engineering. Security guards Rupert English, Matt Quinn, Jason McMahon, T.J. Deptula, Lovely Sanon, and Trisha Cucci tried to quell the disturbance, but the protesters grew increasingly fervent as efforts were made to contain them. Fearing that someone might be trampled, nurses Kristin Sneider, Jaylee Mazzarini, and Giancarla Bonomo were on hand, ready to provide emergency medical aid. Pharmacist Roula Qaqish also stood by, equipped with smelling salts.Luckily, Chief of Security Janice Davidson arrived before a full-blown riot could break out. The protestors were arrested, and peace was restored.

Back on the set of "Talk with Betty," the intense debate was brought to an end with the arrival of musicians Liz Paul, Jamie Fredette, Bernadette Buckley, Julie Gallant, Zafer Mustafa, Keri Cusick, and Alisha David. They alleviated the tension with some much needed music. The band was accompanied by dancers Kelli Connaughton, Dave Class, Dave Vargas, Alicia Gullotti, Joe Swanson, Corey Black, and Sue Eastman.

"Talk with Betty" was sponsored by the law offices of Drew, Soultanian, and DiPace. Betty's hair was done by Rebekah Nowak and Jodi Gangi, and her wardrobe was furnished by Duarte Boutique. Sets were designed by artist John LeBlanc, and guest accomodations were provided by Kazanjian Suites hotels.

COLOPHON

The Waltham High School yearbook was printed by Jostens Printing and Publishing Division, 401 Science Park Road, State College, Pennsylvania 16801. The Jostens in-plant consultant was Karen Betts. The Jostens area representative was John Neister. The advisor was Steve Grant.

The 296 pages used 80# Gloss paper with black ink applied for the entire book. Approximately 52 pages were printed with the four process colors.

The cover of the Mirror was designed by the yearbook staff and Jostens artist Rick Brooks. The cover was a craftline embossed printed on Firebrand material #497 with black ink and silver foil applied. The binding was smythe sewn, reinforced and backed. The endsheets were produced on Snow White stock using Tempo Black.

All body copy was set in 10 point Palatino, picture captions in eight point with 9 point bold leads. Group shot captions in eight point Italic. Section typefaces varied as follows: Aachen Bold, Avant Garde, Bodoni, Bookman, Brush Script, Cooper Black, Copper Plate 31 AB, Futura, Garamond; Regular, Italic, Semibold and Semibold Italic, Franklin Gothic No. 2 Roman, Helvetica, Hobo, Juniper, Lithos Bold, New Century Schoolbook, Palatino, Peignot Demi, Present Script, Symbol, Tekton, Times, and University Roman.

All pages were completed for the first time on Macintosh computers IIsi, and SE/30 using Aldus PageMaker 4.02a, Adobe Illustrator 3.0, Adobe Streamline, Omni-Page Professional, Adlus Freehand 3.01 and MS Word 4.0. All paginated pages were submitted to Jostens on disks an were output to a Linotronic Imagesetter owned by Jostens at 1270 DPI.

Most of the advertisment logos were scanned on a Microtech 600ZS color scanner and redrawn using Adobe Streamline and Adobe Illustrator 3.0 on a Macintosh IIFX computer. The background art was also produced with a Microtech 600ZS color scan of pieces of black yarn and extensively altered using Adobe Streamline and Adobe Illustrator 3.0

The photograph on page two(original at left) was scanned on a Microtech 600ZS color scanner and extensively altered using Adobe Photoshop 2.01 and Aldus Gallery Effects 1.0 using a Macintosh IIFX computer by John Neister. The 15 megabyte file was sent to Jostens on 45 meg Syquest cartridge and was output to a Linotronic Imagesetter at 1270 DPI.

Color separations were made from 35mm prints taken by staff photographers and were printed at Purdy Vantine Studios in Medford. Separations were performed by a laser scanner at Jostens and were individually separated with a 150 line screen. Black and white photos were taken, processed and printed by Purdy Vantine except where indicated. Student portraits were taken by Purdy Vantine Studios of Medford. Terry Bleiler was our representative.

All layout, design, copy and photographs were generated by Steve Grant and the staff. The 1992 Mirror, a 296-page publication, had a press run of 325 copies . Additional specifications may be obtained by addressing inquiries to The Mirror Yearbook Waltham High School Waltham, MA 02154
